

Departmental Supplement

Department of Architecture and Urban Design application deadlines for Fall Quarter 2012: December 15 for all master's and Ph.D. programs

To be considered for Departmental and University fellowships you must submit a complete dossier (including transcripts and letters of recommendation) by the above dates. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed for fellowships. The application form, letters of recommendation, and transcripts will not be individually acknowledged, but applicants will be sent one postcard or email during the admissions process to notify them as to their status. When all of the application materials for the Department and for the Graduate Division have been received, the file will be reviewed and applicants will be notified of the decision taken in their case.

This is not an application form for admission to graduate standing at UCLA. When applicants are accepted by the Department of Architecture and Urban Design, they must also meet admission requirements of the Graduate Division before being admitted. See the Departmental Brochure for more details about application procedures.

NOTE: Before completing, read the privacy notification on the 2nd page of this form. This form should be mailed directly to Department of Architecture and Urban Design Admissions Office, UCLA School of the Arts and Architecture, Box 951467, Los Angeles, CA 90095-1467.
